

French Tutoring & France Travel Advice

#40 Avenue Charles Floquet, Paris, 2005

I will help you find those small corners of Paris where you can still find a whisper of the city as it was before the great urban works of the Second Empire (1848 – 1870). Also, before you leave on your trip, we will look at maps of the city on Google Maps and Géoportail. The maps will give you a general idea before your trip of your hotel's neighborhood and how to get to the tourist sites you wish to see.

You are welcome to converse with me by email during your trip if you need any questions answered.

Mademoiselle d'Armentières, parlez-vous?

Yes, I can help you with your French and prepare you for your next trip to France or Montréal or anywhere else where French is spoken. I am an ex-citoyenne (citizen) of Paris, so I am especially able to help you map your way to what you really want to see when you get to Paris, save you time and money, and give you tips on dining, shopping, transportation, and hotels. Other geographical areas of special knowledge are Burgundy, the Ile de France, and Alsace-Lorraine.

Je vous donnerai conseil sur les endroits qui réservent un souffle de Paris comme elle était avant les travaux du Second Empire (1848 – 1870). En plus, nous accédons les plans de Paris disponible sur Google Maps and Géoportail. Grâce à ces plans, vous aurez la connaissance générale de la ville avant votre voyage et la compréhension des rues aux alentours de votre hôtel et les sites touristiques que vous désirez voir.

Vous êtes prié de me contacter par email pendant votre voyage si vous désirez.
